MINOR PSYCHOLOGY

I'm so thankful for DPhiL and VSA because of the community they provided me. The positions I took on gave me a great opportunity to work with a lot of different people and attend a lot of cool events. I used to be terrified thinking about going to the retreats my youth group would hold like the entire week before because everyone would already know each other and be excited to see each other, but I felt like a stranger every time. However, after becoming a sister and getting onto VSA eboard, I found myself just casually walking to a VSA event with no worries...until I actually got there and started panicking because I realized I didn't mentally prepare myself beforehand like usual. So, a small win that I'm not as anxious anymore, but LMAO I DON'T THINK I'LL EVER FULLY GET OVER THE FEAR. Anyway, I'll be forever grateful to all the sisters I've met these past few years because if it weren't for y'all, I wouldn't be who I am today. :) It feels bittersweet as I'm about to graduate, but I plan to continue to be involved with DPhiL by joining the alum association. As for my career, I'll be actively trying to find a job that involves victim support and eventually go back to grad school for my masters.
